Your Gift

It's easy: A few sentences in your will or living trust completes the gift. You can also name us as a beneficiary on your life insurance policy, retirement plan or bank account.

It's versatile: You can designate a specific amount or a percentage of your estate.

It's life-changing: So many of the people who have completed our programs have gone on to raising healthy families and becoming productive members of our community.

When it comes to legacy giving, you can always change your mind. You may choose to have your name listed among members, or you may remain anonymous.

Your Legacy

Benefits of Creating Your Legacy

You will join an exclusive group of committed people who feel called to serve the children and families of Lackawanna County. You will receive:

An exclusive invitation to the annual Brighter Tomorrows Legacy Society dinner for members.

A certificate of Brighter Tomorrows Legacy Society membership and a donor lapel pin.

Recognition as a Brighter Tomorrows Legacy Society member in the President's Honor Roll provided in the Outreach Annual Report.

Mary Belin Rhodes

Outreach is well-run, effective and pro-active. I want to continue to support the organization well into the future. That's why I have designated in my will a bequest to Outreach.

John S. Morrison, Jr.

I chose to make a legacy gift to Outreach/Center for Community Resources in the form of an unrestricted cash bequest in my will, which ensures that my legacy carries on to provide for the long term success of the Center and supports parent/child programs, workforce development, drug and alcohol prevention, family reunification/re-entry initiatives and community collaboration.
